In this action, Plaintiff is seeking judicial review of the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security pursuant to Section 205(g) of the Social Security Act, as amended, (42 U.S.C. § Section 405). The Commissioner of Social Security denied her claim for disability insurance benefits and supplemental security income benefits under Titles II and XVI of the Social Security Act. The matter is currently before the court for review of the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Bruce Howe Hendricks made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(a), D.S.C.

This court is charged with making a de novo determination of any portion of the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge to which a specific objection is made. The court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation made by the Magistrate Judge or recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b). The court reviews only for clear error in the absence of an objection. See Diamond v. Colonial Life & Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005) (stating that “in the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must ‘only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.’”) (quoting Fed. R.

Civ. P. 72 advisory committee's note).

The United States Magistrate Judge has filed her Report and Recommendation, in which she concludes that the findings of the Administrative Law Judge are supported by substantial evidence and recommends that the decision of the Commissioner be affirmed. No objections have been filed and the time for doing so has expired.

After reviewing the record, the applicable law, the briefs of counsel and the findings and recommendations of the Magistrate Judge, the court finds no clear error. Accordingly, the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge is adopted and incorporated by reference. For the reasons set out therein, the final decision of the Commissioner is AFFIRMED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
